Matthew Woods F.K.A. Burns

Department of Veterans Affairs Coordinates Nazi Defamation Conspiracy Against Ex US Navy SEAL Matthew Woods Since 2015

Matthew Woods,
PO Box 376
Mountain View, CA,
94042

TLDR: I'm a former Navy SEAL, smeared by Dianna Cowern (AKA Physics Girl) via Alphabet Inc. while working as a Google employee. From 2015-2020, I have experienced severe police misconduct first hand. This is across five counties: San Diego, Orange, Santa Clara, Oahu and Hawaii. I think they may have ties to THE Nazis, since my entire immediate family (Donald Burns, Anne Burns and Susan Burns) are Nazis... the type that agree with Adolf Hitler and Eichmann of WWII. They lied to me about this since I was born. Target Corporation, local strip malls and police succumb to fascism and try to suppress me in all ways. on top of that, Citigroup Inc. and Wells Fargo launch denial of service attacks to me and SignalX Inc: a struggling startup owned by disabled former US Navy SEALs in Hawaii. Nation state level hacking is apparent. The Department of Veterans Affairs continues their Nazi defamation campaign against me since 2015.

Dear New York Times, For this installment, we will look at the US Department of Veterans Affairs. As I write this, Robert Wilkie is in charge of the VA. This is another chapter where I must return to the year 2015 for the reader to appreciate how tied up with the Nazis the VA IS. Of course you have read my initial letter that I sent circa June 2020 titled, "Alphabet, Inc. Lies, Blacklists and Conspiracy". It references a group of Nazis that posed as my roommates beginning in 2013 (esp. "The Physics Girl": TPG).

After finishing the first year of my Electrical Engineering PhD program at UCSD (Jun 2015), I faced a surprise attack from the "roommates" which I refer to as "The Big Bang Theory House": TBBTH. They are all grad students in Physics at UCSD at that point, except TPG, who would amount to being the character Penny from that show. They began by insisting that I go see the VA for psych assessment. The police begin coming to the house regularly to "check on me", similar to "swatting" someone. The police became more involved as the number of these encounters increased. There are many anonymous complaints against me. I began to suspect that TBBTH is not trustworthy. The horror is for me to discover later that those people and many more were trying to destabilize me somehow; apparently a tried and true Nazi tactic because I had no idea what they were really doing (I.e. some kind of Eichmann experiments on me). By the end of several months of the smear attack I was convinced that TPG was being manipulated by the others (all men) at TBBTH to have some kind of negative reaction to me, which I responded to by trying to propose to her. I bought a ring and everything. I could not have been more wrong... it is my understanding today that she was the opposite of what I thought: an Adolf Hitler/Eichmann wannabe. I believe she had some type of financial arrangement with my family to "do me in". Apparently TPG is quite the actress. I shared a bathroom with her for over a year and I didn't notice anything awry. I certainly did not suspect anyone of being a Nazi enemy combatant against me. It took me five years to accept the truth of this and begin to take action.

Now, back to the VA San Diego in summer 2015. There are many Nazi psych professionals, but David Lehman is in charge of me there from the beginning. He is having conversations with TBBTH et. al. behind my back. Then they all come in to the VA together to present a unified front against me. I have no idea what they said, apparently that is the "Speak lies about the patient behind their back with the Nazis confidentiality," featuring Lehman, Zanko, Reese and TBBTH. I file writ hearing after writ hearing, allowing public defenders to throw me under the bus time after time. I'm arguing for my sanity and they send one of those three VA doctors I mentioned to argue to the court that I am not only mentally unwell, but a DANGER to myself and those around me. Nothing could have been further from the truth. I won one of those writ hearings when I had a decent defense. For all the others, the defense was inadequate and insulting to me. I became convinced that some kind of Nazi attack was upon me in the VA. However, it did not occur to me that my extended family and TBBTH were a part of that. I just assumed they were stupid kids, like high school. Wrong... they are aggressive, they are Nazis, they want me completely discredited and hopefully dead by suicide. This is in retrospect standing in the year 2020. New information has come to light over the five years that passed since then. You can read my other letters to get a feel for that. I go to the FBI office in San Diego to initiate legal action against the Nazis, claiming, "There are Nazis in the VA attacking me," and I was not even permitted to enter the building. Again, in retrospect, they seem to be fully aware of the 2015 Nazi uprising. They shooed me away after that, but had some girl call months later from the FBI to make sure I was, "Back to sleep." I was. They convinced me for the first time that I was mentally unwell and I accepted that I had bipolar disorder with psychosis. The first person to hint at psychosis was TPB's boyfriend Kyle Kitzmiller. Apparently he is a psychological professional as well. Their narrative is false, contrived and pure evil. After that had blown over, I tried to return to school. The experience was so harrowing that the VA eventually bumped me up to 100% disabled due to PTSD: up from 50% for the same. I went to class and could not handle it, so I left my NSF fellowship on hold and went to some VA (read Nazi) homeless shelter called Veteran's Village of San Diego: VVSD.

I returned to grad school the next year (2016-2017) in the fall to restart my studies. I finished two quarters of class, but fell prey to the larger Nazi org again. This time, my parents, professors, and landlord and police. I live alone, for good reason, by then, in an apartment close to school. I experience a "many on one" effect against me again, which I guess makes the hair on the back of my neck stand up. I returned to my investigation of the Nazis then, citing my extended family. I began to believe that they had been lying to me since birth, maliciously. I would love to fact check what they said to me about both grandfathers. They claim that they both saw combat in WWII Europe, including The Battle of the Bulge on my fathers side, Phillip Burns. Ray Pearson, on my mother's side, apparently won The Distinguished Flying Cross, which they nonchalantly gifted to me when he died. I concluded that everything my family told me was a lie and began burning such relics in my back yard. The police are immediately called on me for that, with a trip straight to the psych ward, to convince me that I am insane. I would not return to the VA San Diego, unless the police forced me. I did however get an electronic copy of my record, for the investigation. I'll remind you that I am data scientist by profession. Simple investigations are not out of scope for my ability level. When that many things are in play, each interaction must be measured separately, which grows with the square of the number of interacting elements. Apparently more data was needed since I once again concluded that I was not mentally well and that the Nazis were not "operating" on me.

It would take another two years of experience with this, including going to work inside Google as a data scientist for one year, to fully convince me that not only am I NOT insane, but I am truly under attack by what seems to be none other than the criminal Trump organization, as well as the POTUS, who has become a paragon of Adolf Hitler as Commander in Chief. All of this after my first detection in 2015, second detection in 2017 and third detection in 2019 after quitting Google because of the Nazi presence there. The one I really could not see was the Physics girl as Adolf Hitler, but even that has resolved in the affirmative. I guess I really loved who she fooled me into thinking she was. Shame on me, I suppose.

The straw that breaks the camel's back, in terms of VA criminal activity comes today, as I write this from the island of Hawai'i. The VA is at it again, apparently in cooperation with a civilian homeless shelter that has beds set aside for veterans. I face dealing with cataclysmic loss of property and identity. I have no ID. I need legal help getting a birth certificate from NY state vital records. I need a birth certificate to get a new ID. The CA DMV put a brand new system in place to order a replacement by outsourcing identity verification. That system, they say, does not work. There is no way for me to get a replacement ID from CA. This is the most flagrant example of Nazi activity that I have seen in a while. I have no options. My money is locked out due to AT&T two-factor, as well as the crushing event of having my wallet stolen five days ago. The VA representative in Kona is blocking my using an open bed set aside for people such as myself at a homeless shelter. They WILL NOT EXPLAIN THEMSELVES as to why this is happening, but everyone “seems to know” it is Hitler related. I think they are the creepiest, most vile, most Hitler agency of them all: the VA. Sure as shit, here I am again having to deal with it, despite having plenty of money in my bank accounts to find a residence. Again I say: this is an intentional nation state level hacking scheme against me. This is the equivalent of “jailing political opponents”... I have no vote, I have no money, I have no access to the courts, my online services are frozen and I have to deal with local idiots stealing my personal property constantly, or, in the case of Target Enterprises, Inc., snatching an iPhone on the ground while other employees give me the full blown Hitler salute to top it off. Where is everybody? Why the silence in light of my many submissions on this subject? Are those communiques being censured somehow, never reaching people who would have the experience to evaluate such claims? The longer the silence, the more my hate builds for this. fraudulent enterprise that has taken foot in America: the Nazi/Eichmann movement from the 1930's-40's. One and the same. I think they should answer for that, one and all.

It's the long con that people aren't aware of... the one they did to me goes back to my birth. They kept up the lie for that long. At TBBTH, I spent two years across two locations with these people and didn't suspect a thing about anything to do with Hitler. They just seemed immature. Don't make the same mistakes as me America: they are extremely dangerous, especially when coupled with top notch fascist, Nazi corporate entities like Google and Apple where I worked.

Matthew Woods (F.K.A. Burns)
